

Amy Dynda Consultant

Edwards, CO 866-601-3614 info@ariacx.com

Amy Dynda has more than 25 years' experience in Management and Management Consulting, Leadership Development, and Program Management. She has worked primarily in the Legal and Technology industries, serving as the Executive Director for the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners and holding various management and executive roles in Fortune 500 companies.

Ms. Dynda is certified by the International Coach Federation (ICF) as a Professional Coach (ACC) and completed the University of Texas at Dallas' Executive and Professional Coaching Certification program. She will soon complete her MS degree from UTD Naveen Jindal School of Management in Management Science (Org Behavior/Executive Coaching) and is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma. She received her BA from Pepperdine University.

Amy specializes in creating and delivering leadership development programs, with a focus on highpotential and women employees. She also specializes in creating and implementing organizational alignment models, focusing on roles and responsibility alignment, decision making, committee and communication cadence, process and performance management and continuous improvement.

Amy holds certifications from Korn Ferry (Lominger) in Leadership Architecture, Voices 360 and Assessment of Leadership Potential; as well as certifications in True Colors and Accelerating Implementation Methodology (AIM – change management). She was previously certified as a Six Sigma black belt.

Amy is a Pennsylvania native, and currently, resides in Edwards, CO. Amy serves as an active board member of a volunteer-run and managed 501(c) (3) dog rescue and advocacy group.